We will Clean and Press your Suit for 4/6

THE bright days of spring should remind you that the suit, packed away in your wardrobe since last summer, will have to do duty again. Take it out NOW and EXAMINE it. You will probably find that it is all out of shape, and that there are innumerable stains and grease marks which escaped your notice when you laid it aside for the winter. The one you are wearing may also look soiled. Don't buy new. If you have never had a garment cleaned by Johnson's Patent process, just send one suit by way of a trial. No smell, no shrinkage, no unmaking. We are also specialists in the cleaning of Dresses, Blouses, Gloves, &c. Booklet gives full particulars. If no branch in your town send direct to—

SECOND IMPRESSION.

Towards a Social Policy.

SUGGESTIONS FOR

CONSTRUCTIVE DOMESTIC REFORM.

By Various Writers.

Representing the conclusions of a Committee consisting of Messrs. C. R. BUXTON, H. C. FAIRFAX-CHOLMELEY, J. L. HAMMOND, F. W. HIRST, L. T. HOBHOUSE, J. A. HOBSON, C. F. G. MASTERMAN, M.P., J. H. MORGAN, and VAUGHAN NASH.

"We must all welcome, therefore, such a volume as the Speaker Office has produced under the title of 'Towards a Social Policy.' It is full of hard thinking and solid information and should be a mine for platform speakers."
—DAILY CHRONICLE.

"The book should be in the hand of everyone who loves his country. It is a lucid and comprehensive statement of the causes of the blight that is falling upon the race, and of the remedies to be applied."—DAILY NEWS.

"'Towards a Social Policy' decidedly 'gives us to think.' Its authors are doing the Liberal Party a notable service."—WESTMINSTER GAZETTE.

"They (the readers) will find within its hundred and twenty odd pages much keen diagnosis of existing evils, much outspoken criticism of the slipshod palliatives with which we have hitherto been content to attempt to meet them, and many bold suggestions—some very bold indeed—as to the direction in which the real remedies are to be found. They may not agree. They cannot fail to be interested."—MORNING LEADER.
